"PHASES 'N FACES"

Foreword

Despite our diffidence in acknowledging it, we have loved and valued our years as a class of Bloomfield High School... In "Phases 'n Faces," we have tried to embody the spirit of those years, the fun, the work, the contacts, and the activities.

ERNEST DAVIDSON

"Ernie"

There is always one boy who is outstanding among his classmates. In our class it is Ernie, with his quiet leadership, easy going ways, and good sportsmanship. His smile is another explanation of his great popularity. Ernie is the president of the Athletic Association and a member of the Hi-Y and Chem Club. He played the part of Charles in the Senior Play.

Ernie is a letter man, and has gained some repute as the fast back on the Bloomfield football teams. He also played on the basketball team. For two years Ernie was on the track team but this year the track team was in Ernie.

ELSIE CARLSON

"Elsie"

Meet the most popular girl in B. H. S. ! But this statement is very unnecessary for we are sure that there is no one who has not met our Elsie. If there really is someone, that person doesn't know what he's missing. This popularity title was bestowed upon Elsie in a recent contest and we are sure that her winning personality did the trick. She is always carefree and full of pep.

Elsie is probably the busiest girl also. She is president of both the Girl Reserves and French Club, besides being the treasurer of our class and vice-president of the Athletic Association. And is Elsie athletic! She has captained her class baseball and basketball teams for three and four years, respectively. At a recent Gym exhibition she was presented with a medal for her hard work and perseverance.

JOANNA V. C. MILLER

"Jo"

No one needs to be introduced to Joanna. Her quiet smile is well known throughout the school and one never sees Jo without the usual flock of friends about her. Her popularity won for her the first year's presidency of the German Club and, besides being the secretary of our class, she is a prominent member of the Girl Reserves.

Jo is a girl with much talent. Few know that she is a singer of rare ability; as a matter of fact she is a terror on the high C's. She spends much of her spare time studying voice culture and plans to make it her life work. However, in the meantime she will be "somebody's stenog."

Joanna firmly asserts that her favorite subject is P. D., and is she a debater?

LEON DOBROWOLSKI

"Dobby"

If you want to find Dobby just cup your hand behind your ear and listen for the blare of a hot trumpet. And can he play that trumpet! He has been a solo trumpeter in the All-State Orchestra for three years. His dance orchestra edged into many of the school dances at B. H. S., too. Dobby holds a record. He has played in the high school band for six years. He was leader this term.

Dobby was vice-president of our class for three years. He has always been in the fore of whatever organization he has belonged to and is one of the best known boys in the class.

ROGER W. AMIDON

"Rog"

Roger is an active member of the Hi-Y, and an apt Math student. He spends his afternoons in a chain store and on Sundays he can be seen around Essex Ave., Glen Ridge.

If you see a gray Cadillac going thru Brookdale at a nice clip its probably Rog and his pals Fred Crause and Bill Potts.

GEORGE A. ARMSTRONG, JR.

"Arm"

Just to look at Armer makes you want to confide in him. That's why he's business manager of the Annual Board. His quiet, pleasant manner has won him many friends. He is the president of the Chemistry Club, vice-president of the Student Council, chairman of the Assembly Program Committee.

Armer is going to be a doctor. He will attend Duke University, and then will major in surgery at a good medical school. He likes all sports, and has been on the football squad for three years, and placed on the baseball team.

ROBERT M. BARR

"Bob" "Rob"

Bob came to B. H. S. from Glen Ridge High and has made himself quite at home with the rest of the gang.

He likes chemistry, belongs to the Chem Club, and hopes to study more chem in the future. Bob believes in getting the highest possible marks with the least possible study and he succeeds pretty well. He has become a master bluffer in his classes.

Bob's chief hobby is collecting guns. He's probably saving up for the next war.

ISABELLE PAUL BIRNIE

One way to spot Is in a crowd is to look for some one tall and dignified, and you'll not miss her. Dignity is an asset when you are president of both the Math and Latin Clubs; and an active member in several others. Isabelle's name is always at the beginning of the honor roll. She was a member of the Student Prints staff and literary editor of this book. She will take a P. G. and Columbia Home Study Course for a year and then Rollins College will welcome her.

EDWIN W. BLACK

"Blackie"

Blackie is our soldier. The C.M.T.C. is one of his favorite haunts. He says that camp creates an appetite. We believe him. Blackie has been known to consume three barbecued ducklings without assistance. However, he is known to —. Washington we mean. Blackie delights in driving a Hupp and he enjoys going around corners at forty-five.

To be a big business man is Blackie's aim. He will probably attend Pace Institute.

GWENDOLYN LOUISE BOYCE

"Gwen"

One of the two girls in the Senior Class from Cedar Grove, Gwen travels to school every day. She has red hair, is tall, and determined.

In P. D. Gwen was forever starting or ending an argument and was an active member of the P. D. activities and trips. Gwen always managed to get the most comfortable seat on those P. D. trips.

JUNE R. BRAUN

"June"

Have you seen a tall, slim girl, with golden blonde hair, driving a Ford? June. There is something slightly mysterious about June. Due, perhaps, to the fact that we know so little about her, for she rarely talks about herself. In Miss Smith's second period English class June was the popular choice for the heroine in many of the plays. June's constant companion is Yvonne Guego and they expect to go to secretarial school together.

JAMES BRIDGE

"Jim"

Did you ever notice the remarkable affinity the ball has for the basket when Jim is playing basketball? Always remember the old adage, "Practice makes perfect". If that doesn't work, ask Jim. Golf is another of Jim's accomplishments. It's rumored that he can break ninety or else one of his clubs. That isn't on a miniature golf course either.

With that Irish tenor voice, Jim will soon be right in the middle of vaudeville. And that laugh!

ARTHUR BRINDLEY

"Art"

Very nonchalant, slow in speech and action and possessed with rare wit. There you have Art in a nutshell. He is well liked by all, which probably accounts for the fact that he is secretary-treasurer of the Chemistry Club.

When Art is not busy he spends his time at music. He is a member of both the band and the orchestra, and he asserts that his favorite subject is harmony.

Art was a stage hand for the Senior Play and really enjoyed shifting scenery. He is one of those lads who are content with a nice thick scientific book. Yes, he is going into the business world.

NORMA LUCILLE BROW

Another member of the Senior Gym Team, Norma was active in girls' athletics during her high school years. She is well liked by everybody for her good fellowship and cheery greeting. Norma is clever in dress designing and can make marvelous cakes and cookies. She is active in her sorority and Junior Woman's Club, and likes swimming and horseback riding.

Norma may enter Lasell next fall.

GERALDINE ELMA BUIE

"Jerry"

Quiet and jolly, that's Geraldine, who loves football, movies, dancing and Math. Jerry was always seen in the bleachers at the football games, usually in company with Jo and Flo. Jerry's hobbies are sleeping and reading, but she really is rather an energetic person as she is director of a playground after school. She proved to be great fun on the Washington trip.

Jerry will take a secretarial course at the Katherine Gibbs School next fall.

MARGUERITE CALLAHAN

"Jerry"

Jerry has made a great hit since she came to this school last September from "The City of Brotherly Love". Jerry is an accomplished cook. Her duties as secretary of the Commercial Club and typist for the S. P. have kept her busy during the senior year.

Jerry is a good student, is high in all her subjects and will make an efficient stenographer.

HARRIET M. CANFIELD

"Harriet"

Harriet is another member of our class who is rather quiet, but nevertheless she is lots of fun when she gets going. Harriet, too, has the good fortune to have nice, curly hair which is always in order! waves.

Harriet says she'd like very much to be a hair dresser when she finishes school. She also remarked that she'd probably end up by being a stenographer.

MARY CANNIFF

"May"

May is the girl with dark hair, lovely blue eyes and a fondness for red dresses. We'd wear red dresses too, if we looked the way May does in them. But being ornamental isn't May's only asset; she's a good tonic for depression.

Her sense of humor and sympathy are catching. She'll make you cheerful, too.

As a member of the Senior Gym Team, May has often demonstrated her gymnastic ability. After graduation she intends to enter the business world as a secretary or stenographer.

FRED J. CAPROFF

"Cappy"

Who is that boy trying to argue against Mr. Ross and the entire class at once? Sure, it's Caproff, the great Caproff.

Fred played the role of Bert, the brakeman, in "The Shannons of Broadway". Remember him? He was the big, conceited bully who didn't do the right thing by our little Annie Todd. But he got his.

Fred had been cheer leader for two years, and head cheer leader for one year, when he passed on the leadership to Russ Forrest.

HARRY BLAINE CARMAN

"Blaine"

Blaine is bashful. More than one girl has said that. It shows interest but he pays no attention whatsoever, and he's so good-looking, too. Remember how the wind blew everytime the door was opened during the first act of the "Shannons of Broadway"? Blaine was turning the crank of the wind-machine. Between acts he carried the big iron stove off the stage all by himself! That's strength!

Blaine has taken honors in athletics. He's a letter man in track because of his remarkable hurdling and pole-vaulting. He also belongs to the Hi-Y. He spends his afternoons with the orchestra and glee club.

GERTRUDE BRENNAN CARR

"Billie"

Introducing our editor-in-chief. Billie has the habit of being the head of every organization she belongs to. She was former editor-in-chief of the Student Prints, co-editor of the Student Council constitution and the handbook, and has been president of the Latin Club and an officer in other clubs.

Billie's infectious giggle, happy smile and innate optimism have helped her gain many responsible positions. She is an enthusiastic horsewoman and likes tennis and golf.

Billie's goal is to be a famous journalist and she intends to study at Columbia after a graduate course at St. Elizabeth's College.

JOHN F. CHRISTENSEN

Johnny is one of those fortunate boys who never take any books home. He can read and outline two chapters of P. D. in one study period! Tie that! Johnny has a sense of humor. He'll never do you dirt by not laughing at your jokes. Try him.

He moves and talks and chews slowly around school but can he do his trig in a hurry!

Johnny belongs to the Math and Chemistry Clubs and is humor editor of the year book.

By the way, if you ever have need of weird stories, go to John. He hasn't missed a copy of Amazing Stories since it began.

GERALD CLERICUZIO

"Jerry" "Goose"

Jerry is "regular". You just can't make him sore. Try it sometime and see. He has an ear to ear smile which makes him liked all the more.

Goose likes to play football and earned his letter playing substitute guard on the varsity last year. He and Dick Fornoff have a patented yell "h-h-h-ey" which Jerry liked to spring on Mr. Ross. Did Jerry raise Cain in Washington? Not much.

In September, he will go to N. Y. U. to take up engineering.

IDA COLARDEAU

"Dizzy"

Ida hails from Verona and has been in our class for only one year, but it hasn't taken her that long to get acquainted. Ida and Alma, as you probably know, are quite inseparable pals, and you may generally see Leon tacked around somewhere nearby. You see, Leon seems rather interested in one of these pals.

Ida has been blessed with a nice crop of curly hair which she keeps nicely combed.

JOSEPH COVELLO

"Joe"

Joe is one of these fellows with a quiet but attracting personality. A frank smile and a cheery disposition are the main reasons for his popularity. In Washington Joe had to pacify the house detectives and he was in the group that was supposed to be making all the noise. But don't you go thinkin' that Joe is a noise-maker. No, not Joe, he never makes noises in the early morning.

Gum chewing seems to be his favorite pastime.

JOHN COWAN

"Johnny"

Johnny seems rather quiet if you don't know him very well, but many can tell you he is far from that. He is the best-dressed boy in our class, and justly earns his reputation as one of the class sheiks. As business manager of the Senior Play, he helped make it a success, and has also helped put across many of our dances.

Outside of school, he may usually be found at Moran's where he spends his time trying to sell stationery.

DOROTHY MARIE CUNNINGHAM

"Dot"

Dorothy has a drawl, red hair, and blue eyes. She came to Bloomfield High School from Chicago, and has been especially popular with the boys.

Going places and doing things is Dot's greatest pleasure. Of course, dancing and swimming come within that category.

Dot has taken the secretarial course in B. H. S.

ADA DANIEL

"Ada"

Wherever, whenever, you see Ada she's sure to be busy. There are just piles of books to be studied, for Ada is a three-year student; news to be gathered for the Independent Press; typing to be done for the Student Prints; photograph appointments to be made as a business manager of the annual; Latin Club, and Senior Gym Team to be attended.

In spite of it all Ada's grin is just as happy, her remarks are just as snappy, and her desire to be a doctor burns brightly.

ALMA FRANÇES de PAUL

"Alma"

Alma is one of the latest additions to our class. She came in September. Alma is rather quiet and you're never quite sure if she's around or not. Nevertheless we're glad to have her with us. As you probably know, Alma is Ida's other half, or vice versa. We'll let them decide which it is. Anyway they're generally together.

GERARD T. DONOVAN

"Gerard"

Saaaay! Who is that hot piano player in 106? Why, that's only Gerard, our popular jazz king. You will find him there most any time of the day, letting off steam. And when Gerard punishes a piano there's no one can stop him. Incidentally, Gerard plays the piano in the orchestra and also for the Boys' Glee Club. He even plays the piccolo in the band.

He is a member of the Hi-Y and former president of the German Club.

Gerard expects to enter Bucknell where he will study to be a doctor.

FLORENCE DRAEGER

"Florrie"

Florence is quiet and modest, yet her pleasant smile is especially durable, and always close at hand. Florrie is known to many people by the fact that she is the sister of Fred Draeger, a former B. H. S. student of exceptionally high scholastic rating. In her own capacity she is an able gymnast, a member of the Senior Gym Team and a lover of dancing. Florence and Jo Galati are the best of pals but they will be temporarily separated when Florence goes to Drake's.

WILLIAM V. DUNN

"Billie"

Have you ever met a fellow who always has his math homework all done? No? Then you haven't met our Billie. He is always in demand before Trig classes and he is kept very busy every day explaining problems to lower classmen who regard him as a teacher and his word as law.

Yes, and Billie has tooted his trumpet for four years in both the band and orchestra. He is also a member of the German Club.

Billie fairly eats, drinks, and sleeps baseball and you can always find him at it in the park.

However, he will study to be a math teacher at the Montclair Teachers College. Naturally, we expected that.

LAURA M. EDWARDS

"Larry"

Laura has been ably described as the little girl with the curls and a big smile. Laura drifts along a path of smiles always with the intention of getting "there" on time but never quite managing it,—viz—P.D. She is teased and loved by everybody. Larry was a member of the Senior Gym Team, the Chem Club, vice-president of the Girl Reserves, exchange editor of the Student Prints and literary editor of the annual.

Larry goes in for tennis, camping and swimming. Montclair Teachers College will be Laura's next adventure.

LILLIAN B. ERDMAN

"Lil" "Lillums"

Cheerful and friendly at all times, Lil got along well with everybody, including teachers. She belongs to and holds office in several clubs. Among them are: president of the Girls' Glee Club; vice-president of the Chem Club; secretary of the Sphinx Club; program chairman of the Girl Reserves, and a member of the Math Club.

On graduating Lillian plans to attend a business school. Her engaging personality will win, we're sure.

JOHN WOODROW ERIKSEN

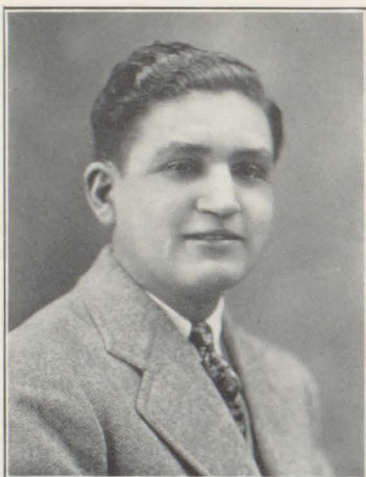

"Buzz"

When Johnny is President of the United States he will look back and realize the wonderful foundation he received at B. H. S. Yes, sir, Johnny surely stepped into politics in good old B. H. S. —president of the Hi-Y, boy representative of the A. A. Association, assistant advertising manager of the Senior Play committee, Johnny got plenty of practice.

He is so good at track that they elected him captain of the team. He went out for football, too.

Johnny was chairman of the class night committee.

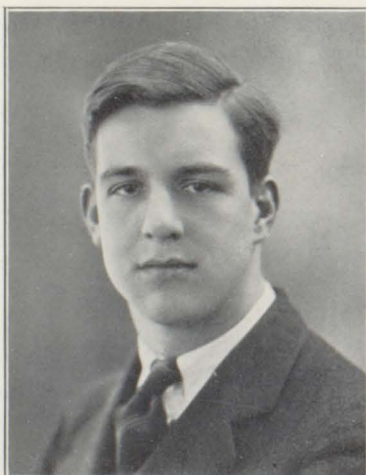

John will enter Duke University this fall.

RALPH FELDMAN

"Ralph"

Ralph has been a life long member of the orchestra. Once in awhile he pops up at a chemistry meeting. Ralph's cranium takes a great deal of resting on the back of one of the Royal's seats.

RICHARD FORNOFF

"Dick"

Always a joker, Dick would be missed anywhere. His smiling good humor and frankness make him a pal to everyone. In Washington even the house detectives learned to know and like him. He played varsity football in '30 and '31 as tackle. Making noise and plenty of it seems to be his main hobby.

Both Dick and his pal, Jerry Clericuzio, have the same pet expression. It is yelling a long drawn out "h-h-h-ey" like Joe E. Brown. Many's the time a study hall teacher wondered where a long yelling sound was coming from.

RUSSELL FORREST

"Russ" "Chubby"

Russ is by far the most absent-minded person in our class and is probably the best humored. For two years Russell has been a cheer-leader and the success of the new "Horse Laugh" cheer is largely due to his efforts.

Singing bass is Russ's chief hobby and in case you don't already know it, Chubby was one of the end men and the skeleton in the Hi-Y minstrel.

Algebra and Chem are Russ's main troubles and he has a big interest in New Brunswick.

MARJORIE FORSYTH

"Marg"

Marg is a jolly, lively sort of girl, always ready to laugh or make someone else laugh. She is an especially apt student in stenography and is assured of success in that field when she leaves school. Marjorie used to belong to the Spanish and Commercial Club but has been too well occupied otherwise of late to retain her membership in them. She enjoys swimming and tennis a great deal and was a member of the Senior Gym Team.

SYLVIA DAYTON FRIED

"Syl"

Sylvia always manages to do the interesting thing. Where Sylvia is there's sure to be laughter, and new enthusiasm. Sylvia has done some fine work in her original anthology, themes, Student Prints work, and her class year book. She was also a member of the German, French and English Clubs, and the Girl Reserves.

Horseback riding, tennis, swimming, reading, the theater, and music keep Sylvia on the go out of school.

Sylvia plans to study at Barnard previous to entering the School of Journalism at Columbia University.

ERNEST FREIDAY

"Ernie"

Ernie is a fishing enthusiast. Did he ever tell you about the big one? It makes Ernie a member in that famous organization, the Tall Story Club. Chess and football are a couple of his sidelines. The Merchant Marine may be honored with his presence for a while. Watch those big waves, Ernie. He may be quiet in English but does he absorb Miss Smith's instructions!

ALBERT C. FROSIG

"Al"

Tall, thin and blond, Al plays a mean saxophone as you probably know if you attended our Senior Play. His million-dollar personality is continually cropping up in the most unexpected places. When you see Al walking home with five or six books under his arm, you may know that half of them won't be opened. After taking a course at Pennsylvania, Al intends to hang out a shingle somewhere with D.D.S. tacked after his name. He is bound to succeed, too.

LAURA FUESS

"Laura"

Sweet, dark-haired, and dark-eyed is Laura. There is a calm, quiet air about her, an air of reliability and earnestness which characterizes everything she does.

It is apparent in her work on the Senior Gym Team, her record as a 3½ year student, and her attendance record, not broken for seven and one-half years or spoiled by tardiness. Laura has already obtained a position as a clerk in Brookside School, of which we expect her to be principal soon.

LOUISE HAMMOND FULTON

A jumble of fun, laughter and thoughtfulness is Louise. She always has a smile for everybody and a chuckle to boot. Louise can jabber on merrily in French and is president of the Spanish Club. She can tell you all about Vergil, too.

Junior Gym Team, and the basket ball and baseball teams helped keep this popular girl busy.

Louise will enter Middlebury College, Vermont, where she will continue with her language studies.

JOSEPHINE M. GALATI

"Jo"

This is Jo, our vivacious curly haired student with a propensity for French and Italian. Jo has already received a prize because of her high rating in Italian and whenever we need any help in French we know where to ask. Her black hair, big black eyes and white teeth make her one of the prettiest girls in the class.

Florence Draeger is Jo's particular pal and vice versa. Oh yes, we expect to find Jo at Montclair Teachers' College next fall, specializing in French.

CZESLAWA GRYCEWICZ

"Czess"

Here is the only member of our class going to the N. J. College of Pharmacy. Good luck to you, Czess.

Czess always has a broad grin and a "Hello there" for everyone. She plays the violin and has been a loyal member of the orchestra during her four years.

Czess was out of school for a year, but we are glad she worked hard and made it up, so she could graduate with us.

YVONNE GUEGO

"Yvonne"

Adjectives are not hard to find to describe our French girl, for she's pert, petite, demure, chic and very, very Frenchy. Other assets are her shiny black hair, dark eyes, and sweetness.

June Braun, Yvonne's constant companion, is as blonde as Yvonne is dark.

As a member of the French Club and Latin Club, Yvonne is well known around school. She and June intend to go to some secretarial school together.

CAROL HAVENS

"Car"

Carol is one of the girls who leave us every noon to go to Girls' Vocational School, to learn to become a dental assistant.

She played the role of Annie in the Senior Play. Swimming and skating are a few of her many pastimes.

Because of her sunny nature Carol has gained many friends.

We all wish Carol lots of luck and promise to visit the office where she works when we have a toothache.

W. HUDSON HAYES

"Hudson"

Hudson plays basket ball at the Community House and baseball at B. H. S. He seems to have an eye for the girls. We can't find out just at whom his attentions are particularly directed.

Can he make up poetry in English Class! He sometimes astounds us, not to say Miss Smith, with some of his highly fluent talks.

EDWARD HILL

"Ed"

Good natured, another of the well-liked boys of our class is Ed. He says hello to everybody and goes out of his way to be obliging. Although quiet, his sense of humor is the outstanding feature of his personality.

Ed is one of the best chem students, is a member of the Chem Club, and has a hobby of collecting minerals.

JEANETTE R. HILOWITZ

"I'm disgusted" exclaims this young lady and looks pleasant about it. Jeanette is well liked, and was trusted with the treasury of the Home Economics Club for two years. She also belonged to the Commercial Club and is president of her sorority.

Jeanette excels in swimming but chooses cooking as her favorite indoor sport.

Stenography will be Jeanette's future job.

RUTH HINCHEY

"Ruth"

Ruth is a very new edition of the Bloomfield High School girl, having come from Morristown High a year and a half ago. However her newness has worn off somewhat and she manages to make herself heard around school rather better than a great many of our Bloomfield "lifers". Ruth was one of the most demure of demoiselles on the Washington trip and never had one of those yellow hairs out of place during all of the three days down there.

ROBERT JOHNSON

"Bob"

Bob is the class baby, so some say. But he has a he man walk that is not equalled by that of any other member of the class unless it's Virginia Taylor.

Bob is a full-fledged member of the Chemistry Club, attending every meeting. He is a Cedar Grover, and has all the girls out there right down at his feet. Hot cha!

DOROTHY JOHNSTON

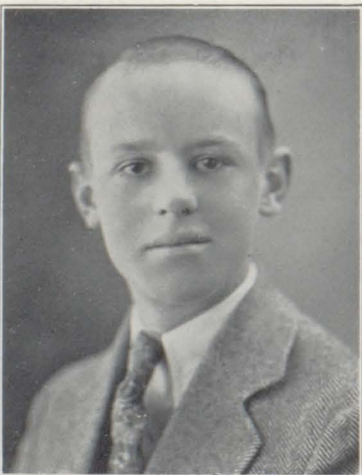

"Dot"

Dot's a swimming fan. In our junior year she came to us from Asbury Park where she won a place on the Girls' Interscholastic Swimming Team.

In the 1928 Swimming Meet Dot won third place. She also was on the hockey and track teams in Asbury Park, and on the B.H.S. baseball team.

Dot belongs to the Commercial and Spanish Clubs, and has taken many art courses.

Dot will enter the Newark School of Industrial Arts in September, where she will take courses in sketching and magazine illustrating.

J. RAYMOND KAISER

"Ray"

"No, you're wrong, Mr. Ross." And there you have Ray. Just leave it to him to pick out the flaws in Mr. Ross's conclusions. Ray certainly can tell it to him and we really believe Mr. Ross enjoys it. Yes, of course, Ray's favorite subject is P.D. but—here's sad news—instead of becoming an excellent P.D. teacher he plans to enter the business world.

He is a member of the Hi-Y and Chemistry Club, and he spends his spare moments sinking baskets from all angles of the court.

Ray is also interested in golf and you will usually find him caddying at the Montclair Country Club.

ALVIN KLEINFELDT

"Al"

Noise and wisecracks accompany Al wherever he goes. He likes to dance and sing altho he doesn't succeed very well in the latter.

His pet subject is English altho you'd never know and he plans to work on the Lake Hopatcong paper this summer.

If you want a good time just hang around Al and you're sure to get it.

NORMAN L. KNEF

Who is that quiet, good-looking chap that always runs around with Kurdek? You know him. That's Knef. He's one of our soldier boys who received their training at Plattsburg and Madison Barracks.

Knef is an active member of the Chem Club. In fact, he hasn't missed a Chem Club or P. D. trip during all his 12th year.

It has been kept a pretty close secret but it has leaked out that Norman's name is Lysle.

ROBERT H. KOHLMAN

"Bob"

Bob certainly double checks his haberdashery. Scoreless stampedes have been accredited to his flaming neckties. His humor actually revives fellow pupils. Bob had his fortune read in New York with the P. D. Class. Ask him about it sometime. It's an inspiration.

JOHN KRISKA

"Rubber" "Itchy"

"God helps them that helps themselves," is Rubber's motto and he sure sticks to it faithfully.

Rubber, having come from New Brunswick, has been in B. H. S. only about a year and a half, but he is already known by everybody.

In the Senior Play, Itchy played the part of "Oscar". He is quite an actor and entertains the Hi-Y at their meetings. You ought to see him in gym sometimes and you'd know why they call him Rubber. Rubber plans to enter the business world when he graduates but the class seriously advises him to go on the stage.

EDWIN KURDEK

Edwin is another of our soldier boys that went to C.M.T.C. at both Plattsburg and Madison Barracks. He is an infantryman, artilleryman and cavalryman.

Ed spends his afternoons and Saturdays down at the Center cutting meat and scraping off the chopping blocks.

He doesn't know what he is going to do when he gets out of school, but we don't think he will continue in the butcher business.

HERBERT KUSSROW

"Herb"

Herb lives on Liberty street. And he knows some nice-looking girls, but for some reason or other he doesn't go around with any girl in our class. This is unexplainable, because he certainly attracts. Ask any of them.

Herb is very quiet but when he decides to make a little noise he lets out all the stops, which can be evidenced by any of the gang that went to Washington.

ELEANOR E. LAWLESS

"Eleanor"

Eleanor is one of those three blonde Lawless girls who live in Glen Ridge, have a Montclair telephone number, and attend Bloomfield schools.

Sweet, yet somewhat sophisticated is Eleanor, and generally popular with the boys and girls. Her haircomb has perpetuated the family reputation for lovely haircombs. Sewing, and being treasurer of the French Club figure among Eleanor's accomplishments.

Eleanor and Edith Sutherland are real pals, and though Eleanor is at present headed for Columbia University, Edith may persuade her to go to Montclair State Teachers College with her.

MILDRED J. LEAYCRAFT

"Mildred"

Have you had the pleasure of meeting Mildred? No? That is a pity for Mildred has a charming personality. She seems to be in a perpetually good mood. Is it possible for a human being to be so pleasant in school and then keep it up at home too? How about it, Mildred? Millie took Latin for three years and is an associate member of that select group, the Latin Club. The Spanish Club also finds her a faithful supporter as do several other clubs.

J. MALCOLM LITTLE

"Snapper"

Can Malc play "hot breaks" on his sax? Why the echoes alone could start a drought. Malc is also a singer of some repute. He has Rudy Vallee worried. Malc's tootin' brought him a part for the Senior Play. It's inspiration from the master. When Malc is president of The Amalgamated Ball Bearing Company, drop in and borrow carfare.

JESSIE LIVINGSTON

"Jessie"

Jessie is known wherever she goes by her giggle. In fact she would be quite a stranger even to her sister without it. Jessie was formerly a "Student Prints" typist but the uncertain hours worked on her nerves and she felt it imperative to resign. Previous to that she had occupied a position on the advertising staff of that same publication. She is planning to be a stenographer, or is it secretary, upon graduation.

ALMA C. LOFQUIST

"Alma"

Alma's chief characteristic is being with Elizabeth Metz. They are the ideal school chums.

The Commercial and Spanish Clubs were extra-curricular activities in which Alma participated. Swimming, basketball, riding, reading, and dancing occupy the rest of her spare time.

Alma has great ambitions to be a private secretary and to travel.

LOUISE E. LOHNES

"Wiggy"

Don't ask where Louise ever received the name "Wiggy". It's just a mystery to us, but she is generally known by this name. Wiggy spends quite a lot of her time reading and can tell you which of the latest books you shouldn't miss. About two days a week Wiggy may be seen in the Library trotting around with books or putting them in the proper places. Really, Wiggy would make a splendid Librarian.

Wiggy has quite a sense of humor, and when she gets laughing she takes a while to get thoroughly laughed out. The worst of it is she gets the rest of us laughing too, so you usually have a good time with her anyway.

Wiggy belonged to the Girl Reserves and to the French Club.

MICHAEL JOSEPH LONGO

"Mike"

At last, folks, Beau Brummell has been reincarnated. We'd like to see any fellow outshine Mike. Though Mike is shy, his pleasing smile immediately wins him a host of friends.

Baseball and swimming are his favorite follies and sports.

ALBERT V. LUBKE

Albert seems rather reserved, but in class he has his own definite idea of things. Albert formerly attended West Side High School but will graduate with this class.

Golf, hiking and tennis are Albert's inhibitions, and he made the '29 track team at West Side.

Union will be Albert's future Alma Mater where he will study engineering.

*Drake Specialty Co.
Phila.*

ROBERT LAURENCE McCONNELL

"Harp"

In all Bob's complex nature his modesty stands out distinct from all the rest. He has always been a little back from the front of things but he has always been there.

Any afternoon and any Saturday you can find Bob down in the Center wielding Ye Olde Cleaver at Ye Olde Chopping Block. You've guessed it, he's a butcher boy.

He won't be all his life, though, because he's going in for clerical work after he leaves dear old Bloomfield.

Upsilon

LOUISE M. MCGILL

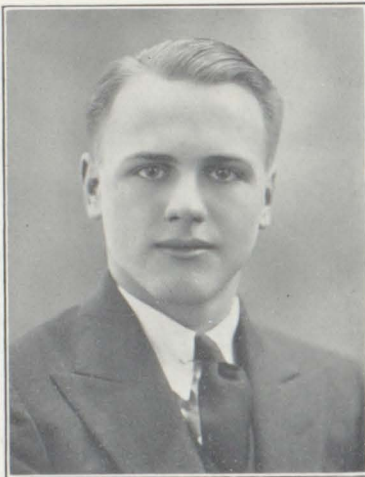

"Micky"

Louise is a happy, laughing, never-down-in-the-dumps miss as her eyes so eloquently disclose. During her two-year career in Bloomfield High (she comes from Irvington) she has endeared herself to all her classmates.

Poor Mickey is always rushed for time. How does she spend it? At Junior Gym Team, basketball or baseball, rifle, or one of the several clubs, besides busying herself in a great many activities outside of school. Louise is one of the horseback sextette of the Girl Reserves.

Louise hopes to enter Montclair Teachers College in the fall.

U. of Va.

THOMAS MAXFIELD

"Tom"

This young man professes his chief interests in life to be "wine, women and song." Oh, yes, he finds quite a bit of time to devote to himself, to his automobile, and to horses.

Mr. Haupin despairs of ever making an engineer of Tommy because he simply won't stop loitering in the halls when his Trig book is begging for attention. "You have the ability, Maxfield, but——."

Won't you bring us back a pheasant the next time you go on one of those hunting trips, Tom?

ELIZABETH A. METZ

"Betty"

We'll never forget the marvelous dancing displays Elizabeth put on at the girls' gym exhibitions. She has studied for many, many years and deserves any praise that comes her way. She is also on the Senior Gym Team.

And that giggle! If you do follow it, it will probably lead you to the typewriting room, for typewriting is her favorite subject.

"Miss Two Hundred"—as her classmates affectionately call her—is going to be a stenographer, and after a while she is going to travel, and travel far.

MARGARET A. MILLS

"Mickey"

If you want Mickey look for Virginia Taylor. They're inseparable.

Mickey belongs to the Sphinx Club and has many hobbies, among which are swimming, camping, and making noise. An' can she make noise for her size? Ask anyone.

A bundle of pep and plenty popular spells Mickey Mills. Her main ambition, as she expresses it, is to "become a costume designer, pulling down $1,000 a week." For this reason Mickey expects to attend Fawcett Art School when she graduates.

MARGARET MOORMANN

"Peg"

Margaret belongs to that class of girls in the Commercial Department who have the distinction of being on the honor roll every now and then. As for extra-curricular activities, which are being stressed so much just now, Peg belongs to the Commercial Club, bats tennis balls around, and "adores" swimming. She is also one of the lucky girls whose hair is long enough for her to stop worrying about stray ends and loose bobbie pins.

Margaret will grace the office of some important business man after graduation and explain in a whisper that "he is in conference now. Could you call later?"

BLANCHE MUSER

"Blanche"

Here is a young lady who can enact Lady Macbeth sleep-walking scene without making herself ridiculous. Blanche is very active in dramatics and public speaking and was chosen as alternate in the Times Oratorical Contest this spring.

Blanche is quite versatile, her interests and abilities extending from the aforementioned dramatics to athletics, German, and dietetics. She is very skillful on the Senior Gym Team and enjoys hiking.

After graduation she expects to attend Cornell, where she will study dietetics.

ARTHUR OLIN

"Art"

Art is a likable chap. He has a winning way about him that draws friends and keeps them. He is a member of the Hi-Y and the Sphinx Society and is also on the roll of the Chemistry Club.

Art doesn't seem to mind work a bit because he was a stage hand for the Senior Play and he works in the A. and P. in his spare time.

However, he likes the outdoors and all that goes with it. His idea of a good time is to go camping in some place where the "fishin's good".

Upon graduating he plans to work and attend college at night.

WILLIAM F. PENN

"Bill"

At first sight, Bill appears quiet and serious but one can never tell about these quiet fellows. He is, however, determined, and well-liked by his many friends. He has the distinction of being the only senior to ride to school every day on a bike. Bill's special hobby is gardening, and he spends all of his summers on a farm. Agriculture is going to be his specialty at Rutgers, where he'll go after he has gained a year's experience of farming.

GEORGE W. PIERSON

"Hot-stuff"

Tall and lanky, George is quite a ladies-man. At Senior Play practice he used to delight the boys with the stories of his escapades. He also proved his reputation as a fast worker. Incidentally the barber in the play was no one else but George.

The Math Club needs George like a baby needs milk. He is treasurer and takes care of most of the business. This experience will surely help him to climb to success any where he goes.

DONALD T. POLLITT

"Don"

Donald's personality is as surprising as his smile. His quiet ways do not entirely hide his thoughtfulness and fun. He makes an understanding friend and likable classmate.

It is not generally known that Don is an enthusiast of boxing and is proficient in that sport. He is also fond of horses.

CHARLOTTE POSSE

"Charl"

Carefree is Charlotte, and nonchalant in her wise cracks. She is never found unsympathetic toward her friends and classmates.

Charlotte is a clever gymnast and was on the Senior Gym Team. She played on the class basketball and baseball teams for four years.

German Club, annual board, and Girl Reserves took up some of Charlotte's time after school.

KATHRYN MARIE QUINN

"Kay"

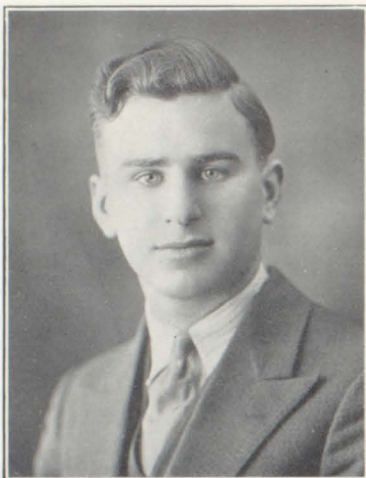

Kay, a three and a half year student who did not join us until our Junior-A year.

Kay's partner in crime is Marge. In spite of the fact that they are opposites in appearance and habits, they are the best of friends.

Kay is an excellent dancer. Mr. Ross can vouch for that. She is also a prominent member of the Sphinx Society.

After graduating, Kay expects to go to N.J.C. where we know she will be just as successful as she was here in B.H.S.

JOSEPH RAM

"Joe"

Joe was property manager of the Senior Play "The Shannons of Broadway." He set the clock on the wall to the right hour, and made sure there was dry ice and water in the tea kettle to make steam. It was real work.

Otherwise, Joe is very quiet and studious; so much so, in fact, that he is graduating in three and a half years.

Outside of school, he earns money in his own little printing establishment. He'll make his way.

ANNA D. RARESHIDE

Anna entered B. H. S. in her sophomore year and has enthusiastically participated in her classes and activities. She was active in the French and Chemistry Clubs and acted as assistant editor of the Student Prints, but her favorite occupation is laughing. Arguing and making interesting scrap books fill up Anna's spare time. Anna's generosity and good naturedness were often exhibited when she would convey harried classmates to late appointments in her car. Oh, yes, Anna can drive.

MARJORIE E. RATCLIFFE

"Marge"

Marge is the only Titian blonde in our class and is well liked by both sexes because of her pleasing personality. She is a three-and-a-half-year student and a member of the Girls' Gym Team. For her splendid work on the team she was recently awarded a silver star.

Wherever Marge is you are sure to find Kay Quinn.

Brookdale is the home of this fair lady and she is quite an experienced farmer.

Marge has not decided upon her future career, but here are our best wishes for success.

HARRIETTE REPSHER

"Harriette"

If you hear someone saying, "oh my gosh", with the right accent on the "oh", then it's generally Harriette, who is being told something rather surprising. Harriette says this quite often. In fact once in a while it even slips at a rather embarrassing time, but then—that happens to the best of us.

Harriette is care-free and has a regular "Pepsodent" smile. On being asked if she has any special hobbies, she told us that she liked practically everything in general, but nothing in particular, so there you have a fair idea of a good old pal.

Harriette belonged to the Chemistry Club, Girl Reserves, and French Club.

PHILIP SACADUTO

"Phil"

Phil is a barber by trade. He says his motto is "I trim them and I shave them." Note the double meaning? Phil has got the masked tenor practicing his scales again. You probably didn't know it, but he can wheedle out his lyrics. He was an active member of the Boys' Glee Club, and is popular among his school fellows.

JOSEPH SCHIEFERLY, JR.

"Joe"

To judge from Joe's past record you'd think he was all business—Business Manager of the Junior Prom, Business Manager of the Senior Play, Assistant Business Manager of the year book, member of the Ring and Class Night Committees,—but he is also General Manager and Instigator of Class Pranks and Petitions. Joe has a weakness for petitions. Whether it is for less P.D. or bigger and better school-life, Joe has a petition going around.

Joe professes to be a woman hater and intends to continue his Business Career at Duke University managing Business Administration.

FLORENCE K. SCHILLING

Florence doesn't have to make a big noise to be noticed. Pretty, full of fun, she is one of the most popular girls in our class. For her brilliant work in gym Miss Russell gave Florence a gold medal. She was a captain of the Senior Gym Team and played on both the basketball and baseball teams. In club work Florence led the swimming group of the Girl Reserves, served as vice-president of the Latin Club and was a member of the Chem Club. She was also on the Senior Play and Class Night Committees.

Beaver is Florence's choice for college.

RUTH E. SCHNEIDER

"Ruthie"

Ruthie is one of the quieter members of the class, and also belongs to the smaller group, but nice people don't have to run on a large scale. Ruthie is very conscientious, which is something to be proud of. Her favorite saying is, "I'll up an at ya". We don't quite get what she means; such a little girl as she is would soon be downed. If Ruth comes around trying to collect money from you, it's probably for past dues of the Spanish Club of which she was treasurer.

JUNE R. SCHREIBER

"Junie"

Small and demure is June. She looks very quiet but she really is rather devilish when you get to know her.

June's interests range from dancing to tennis. She is very fond of dancing and singing. She has sung on many school occasions and over the radio.

June will study dancing at the Den-nishawn School in New York in September. Her favorite sports are tennis, riding, and swimming.

WILLIAM SEALS

"Bill"

Although Bill has been with us only a year he has already made many friends. He came to us from Mount Vernon, Ohio, where he was quite prominent in school affairs. However, he will not be with us long for he plans to return to Gambier, Ohio, to study engineering at Kenyon College.

Bill's hobby is music and does he jazz a sax and clarinet! He willingly gives an exhibition any time at orchestra rehearsals of which organization he is a member. Still, Bill has a weakness for swimming and basketball.

Bill is happy and contented with a travel book, which probably accounts for the fact that English is his favorite subject.

JOHN SERGOVIC

"John"

Quiet but friendly, John's smiling disposition has helped the class enjoy every day they have spent in B.H.S. In chemistry John's happy-go-lucky way of doing experiments kept the spirit of his classmates high. In the lecture room, though, John is a wizard.

He aims to study Chemistry in Newark Tech and the Newark College will be lucky to get him as a student.

EDWARD SMITH

"Ed"

Ed has always been a quiet, likable chap, palling with no one in particular, but being friendly with everyone, willing to lend you his last nickel carfare, if you really needed it.

Ed is very good in Chemistry. His experiments are always up to date and he always has time to fiddle around with little odds and ends while his classmates are still trying to get their experiments to come out right.

He has high hopes of becoming an engineer.

CONSTANCE STONE

"Connie"

Connie is the popular social worker of our class. She was on the Junior Prom Committee, Senior Play, Ring and Class Night Committees. As the heroine of the Senior Play, "The Shannons of Broadway", Connie was a great success. She also belonged to the Chem and Sphinx Clubs.

Dramatics interest Connie most but dancing, swimming, and tennis are close runners-up. Connie was a member of the Board of the Junior Woman's Club for several years. She hasn't decided upon any career.

EDITH A. SUTHERLAND

"Edith"

You will probably find Edith down around 107 with Eleanor Lawless by her side. She is the sweet, dignified-looking girl, who has a soft prettiness of her own. You won't think Edith quiet either, if you know her well, for she's especially fun-loving.

Edith is kept pretty busy with French Club, Latin Club, and Girl Reserves. Though she's not a bit athletic looking, Edith is a member of the Senior Gym Team, and a crack rifle shot at the Community House Range.

OLGA TATON

Olga is a candidate for Newark Normal and a three-and-a-half-year student at that. Reserved and serious is Olga, and very intent on her work.

She is fond of music and studies the piano.

Olga always manages to get the right accent in French class and her reading is a pleasure to listen to.

Olga likes Chemistry and is a member of that club.

DOROTHY LUCILE TAYLOR

"Dot"

Dot came to B. H. S. from New York at the beginning of her high school career. Her chief characteristic is her sunny smile which is made more pleasing by two dimples. She is well liked by all and has a host of friends.

Dot belongs to the Commercial Club, of which she is vice-president, and the Girl Reserves and is typist for the S. P. and Annual Board. Her hobbies are swimming, ice skating and dancing.

Dot's expediency with the keys gives her a head start in her career of stenography.

VIRGINIA TAYLOR

"Gin"

Here's a little girl who would be tall. She and her pal Mickey Mills are probably the smallest in the class. Virginia has a yearning for boys with black hair.

She is a member of the Chem and Sphinx Clubs and wants to become a nurse. For this reason she is going to train in the East Orange Homeopathic Hospital. Boy, the number of patients in that hospital is going to double!

MURIEL LILLYANE THOMPSON

"Lee"

Muriel is one of the most interesting persons of our class. Lee's hobbies are dancing, letter-writing, tennis, music, making acquaintances, travel and gymnastics. Lee is a music lover and an accomplished pianist. She plays for the Natural Rhythms classes at the Episcopal Church, Orange, and at the Episcopal Church, Montclair. Lee also enjoys dramatics and belongs to clubs in Orange and Montclair. She is also a member of the N.A.A.C.P., the Girl Reserves of the Orange Y. W. C. A., and is president of the Gli Allegri.

ANDREW V. TYMON

"Andy"

Andy's name and work will never be forgotten in B. H. S., for he has designed the school seal and has gained prominence in his art work. Dozens of his clever and amusing linoleum cuts have appeared in the Student Prints, of which he was art editor. Andy won third prize for an etching entered in the National Scholastic Art Contest.

Andy was also active in the Senior Play, and the Glee Club and was art editor of the year book. His cheerful grin, dry wit and humor have endeared him to all. He will study art at Yale.

DOROTHY VAN WINKLE

Dorothy has an ability for business and has been on the banking staff for several years. She is a commercial student and has a determination to succeed.

Dot has many class friends and enjoys a popularity of her own. She was an able officer of the Commercial Club.

ROBERT VAUGHN-CATT

"Bob"

Bob is one of the popular fellows of our class. His popularity is undoubtedly due to his bright personality and care-free attitude toward everything in general. He brightens both Hi-Y and Chemistry Clubs with his sunny smile.

Bob is one of the select few who have the opportunity to travel. He has been abroad several times and has had many experiences while traveling in the states. He claims that his favorite pastime is eating. Still he spends much of his time at his chosen sports, namely, football, swimming, and track.

Bob thoroughly enjoys a good argument with Mr. Ross and here's a secret—he plans to study Aeronautical Engineering at the University of Michigan.

MARGARET WAHLUND

"Peg"

Peg is the girl with piles of stenographic ability and a craze for swimming. A business woman and a blonde one at that, is Peg. Her efficiency in helping to manage the high school savings bank and as president of the Commercial Club testifies to her expertness in that direction.

Peg wants to be a secretary and we know she'll make a speedy one for some big business man.

DOROTHY WESTON

"Dot"

Dot, although she is graduating in three and one-half years, is a doll-like sort of person who loves dancing and pretty clothes. She informs us that her one ambition is to go to Paris and spend "oodles" of money on a complete wardrobe. Her other pastimes are swimming, attending Senior Play rehearsals, and keeping her complicated haircomb in place.

Dot belongs to the Spanish Club and the Senior Gym Team.

After she graduates she will be a stenographer to some crabby business man, so she says.

ROBERT WHITE

"Bob"

Bob White is one of our athletes. Bob played varsity halfback for three seasons and fullback for one. He has traveled extensively abroad and has a good business head as is proven in the way he managed the last Senior Dance, which was a great success. A perfect smile adds greatly to Bob's personality.

What B. H. S. loses Fordham will gain and the class wishes him all kinds of luck.

WALTER H. WHITEMAN

"Walt"

Walt is a husky, good natured, blond young fellow, who likes to read quite a bit. He is interested in athletics, which is proved by the fact that he has been out for football the last two years, and acted as assistant manager of the 1930 baseball team. As for girls, his interest seems to be about zero, although one can never tell in these cases. Walt is going to Rutgers where he will study business administration.

DAVID J. WILLIAMS

"Dave"

Dave was seriously thinking of bringing his bed into classes. No lines of worry are going to cloud his pink brow. Dave may often be seen chasing the pig-skin around a field, and having a grand time doing it. At last, the no-sleep record at Washington has been broken by our own Dave.

IDA M. WILLIAMS

"Ida"

Ida doesn't rate among the tallest of the class, but then, some like them short. Ida is generally seen smiling serenely. She must be extra fond of school or something. Anyway, she likes to dance a lot. Sleeping, football games and long walks are her delight.

Ida's ambition is to go to France. Quite a big trip for a little girl, but we hope she'll get it soon. She hopes to go to Newark Normal in the fall.

Ida belonged to the Chemistry and French Clubs.

JOHN A. WOLLAK

"Johnny"

Johnny runs a scandal column. That is, we now admit that he edited the Scrapbasket. He is also sports editor of the Student Prints, a humor editor of "Phases 'n' Faces", and a member of the Chem Club.

He is forever talking, and that hearty laugh is the keynote of Johnny's personality. He was forever arguing in P. D.

Johnny wants to be a journalist and he is going to study at the University of North Carolina.

BERTHA S. WRONSKY

"Bert"

Bert can easily be recognized by her pleasant smile and her neat haircomb. Bert can also boast of graduating in three and one half years.

Bert likes to trip the light fantastic on the dance floor, and no wonder, for she's quite an expert. She is an expert in arranging her trick haircomb, too.

VINCENT J. ZERGIEBEL

An enthusiastic and capable debater is Vincent, who votes P.D. as the least evil of senior tribulations. Vincent's name is closely associated with band and orchestra activities in which he plays the clarinet and sax. The German Club also claims Vincent as a member, and the annual books him as a literary editor.

Vincent is identified by classmates by his frequent yodels for Billy Dunn, his colleague and collaborator. Vince will study business administration in college.

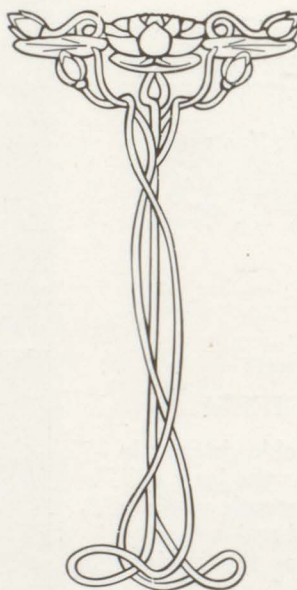

WILLIAM ZERGIEBEL

"Bill"

Bill is a clean cut chap, a good sport, and always ready for fun. His clothes and daring pranks make him a known figure of our class. He drives a fast car, too.

Bill is a commercial student and submitted one of the best anthologies during his senior year.

Class History

ONE SEPTEMBER morn, four years ago, we, the present Senior A Class, one hundred and fifty strong, stormed the mighty portals of Bloomfield High School, and, without much hesitation, wisely chose Miss Mabel V. Jenkins as class adviser.

We started things off with a bang by giving one of the best dances ever staged by a Freshman class.

Our Sophomore year was marked by another successful dance, and the election of Ernie Davidson as class president.

The most important events of our Junior year were the Junior Prom and the selection of the class ring. The prom was a gala affair, the first dance to be held in the new boys' gym.

As Senior B's we combined with the Seniors A's in producing "The Shannons of Broadway," a three-act comedy, coached by A. Dixi Crosby. Following this, a big dance was given, the most successful one of the season.

As a final fling, part of the Senior Class was rushed through Washington, D. C., and out again in one glorious week-end.

And now, after four hectic years, one hundred and fourteen sadder but wiser graduates are ready to leave B. H. S. on June 23, 1931.

The Washington Trip

ONE BUS. Sixty students. Sixty suitcases. No. Not to Washington that way. That only lasted until we reached the B. & O. Station where we were given the luxury of three buses to the station in Elizabeth. There, after much waiting we saw our train stop before its signal for a mad rush for seats in the special car marked Bloomfield.

The usual pastimes whiled away the time until we reached Washington. where we found it necessary to hike the length of Union Station to reach our buses. As we drove along the various avenues, among them New Jersey Avenue, we realized from the cross streets that no Washington resident can afford to be without a knowledge of the alphabet. Arriving at the hotel we were given our meal tickets and keys.

Soon it was "All Aboard" again, this time on sight-seeing buses with which we were to become so thoroughly accustomed. After pointing out all manner of famous and important buildings, our guide informed us that we would cross over to Georgetown and thence go to the Arlington Cemetery.

Then we were whirled on to the Washington Monument, where we were not permitted to walk up to the top as it was late. A few managed to walk down, however, before the stairway was closed.

On to the Lincoln Memorial to inspect the gigantic statue of the great President and take snapshots by the waterway and then back to the Cairo for dinner, which was very pleasing to most of us.

After dinner the buses left for the Congressional Library minus seven passengers, who dashed up late but unabashed in one taxi. In the library everyone was free to roam around as he chose and see what he most desired, which generally included the Declaration of Independence, the Constitution, and the handsome dome of the reading room. At nine o'clock we returned to the hotel but little was the sleep that any of us had that night. The house detectives would vouch for not having had much either.

The next morning all of the telephones rang at seven o'clock to awaken any fortunate sleepers and by seven-thirty everyone was down at breakfast.

That morning was spent in the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, the beautiful Pan-American Building, the fascinating Smithsonian Institute from which we were loath to tear ourselves away, the White House and the Capitol and we all arrived at the hotel with worthy appetites.

The entire afternoon was spent in a trip to Mt. Vernon by boat. After a picture of the class had been taken on the lawn, groups wandered as they chose about the grounds and buildings of the historic old place.

Later that evening, at the hotel, some of the class attended the dance arranged especially for us. The colored orchestra was exceptionally good.

Another night followed similar to the preceding one and on Saturday morning a sleepy group of Bloomfielders boarded buses for Annapolis, where, after being taken through the various buildings, we went over to Warden Field, where we had the unusual good fortune to see two thousand midshipmen in full dress parade. We were shown the chapel in which John Paul Jones' body lies and then returned to Washington for lunch and to pack.

About twelve of us went to the flying field to see Washington by air before boarding our train for home.

We thank Mr. and Mrs. Koehler and Miss Jenkins, who acted so ably as our chaperons, and hope that they enjoyed the trip as much as we did.

How the June Class Was Killed

MURDER! That's what brought the police to the house of Dr. Thomas Oakes Maxfield, Jr., on the evening of June 19, 1941. Constance Stone, the famous scientist's private secretary and Ernest Davidson, track coach for Penn State, had found upon returning from an afternoon dance, the doctor lying dead on the rug of his den.

Police Chief Brindley and his force of Russ Forrest, Al Kleinfeldt, J. Christensen, E. Hill, R. Kaiser, and E. Kurdek could find no signs of the murderer upon their arrival. Police Doctor Armstrong said that death was caused by strangulation with a rope. Coroner Carman could make no statement as to who the murderer was; while Snoop (Al Frosig) and Peep (V. Zergiebel), police detectives, could find no clues as to the killer's identity.

Gertrude Carr, writer for the Society Scandal; Sylvia Fried, of the Daily Hooie; and John Wollak, of the Independent Mess; came to get the details of the affair, and went to interview the head of the house. Meanwhile, Russell Forrest, Cop 13, was left on guard in the den and he started to read a book called "How to Solve a Murder Mystery". Blanche Muser, "The Mysterious Widow", entered the room and searched the desk. The "Shadow" strangled her while Forrest was unaware of all that happened.

Later Forrest discovered the "Widow's" body and it was taken to headquarters. Forrest turned on the radio, and after a while Connie told him to turn it off.

The next morning, Connie and Mary cancelled all engagements. Peep and Robert Barr, the chemist, were murdered in the morning and John Wollak in the late afternoon.

In the evening all the household, the police, reporters, etc., were assembled, when suddenly the room darkened and the "Shadow" made an appearance.. He dropped a test tube and the room was filled with fumes. All were suffocated to death. Schieferly was killed by a gun shot from the audience.

Senior B Class

President	HUGH HEALY
Vice-President	AARON WOLETZ
Secretary	EMAGENE EARLE
Treasurer	FRANCES BLANKLEY

THIS SENIOR CLASS is a small one in size and stature. Nevertheless, it has accomplished a few things while residing in B. H. S.

In April, class members received their rings. Proud we are to have the first ones with the school seal on them.

Our latest problem was the Senior Play, but with the aid of Dix Crosby, it was successful. "Pals First", a three-act comedy, was presented on May 22 and 23. Included in the capable cast was Mr. Crosby himself.

Under the supervision and guidance of Miss Anne Smith, our class is entering the last step of its endeavor. By February we shall have completed a four years' course in Bloomfield High.

President	JOSEPH CARLSON
Vice-President	MARION STEBBINS
Secretary	ELEANOR MCCLLOUD
Treasurer	ROBERT PERRINE

OUR CLASS, consisting of about one hundred and fifty members, has increased during the past year, gaining some three and one-half year students, and also some new members who plan to graduate with us in June, '32.

We have been well represented in practically every activity. Thomas English recently won first prize for Bloomfield in the New York Times Oratorical Contest, and also came out third in the district contest. Armand de Rosset took first prize for the best essay.

Practically every branch of athletic activity has some of our members represented. Thomas Adams is captain of the football team; Jack Wathey, manager of the baseball team; Julius Carriga, football manager, and Marion Stebbins, girl representative of the athletic association. The XI A girls' basketball team, with Flora Karas as captain, won silver basketballs as a reward for an undefeated season. The girls' baseball team this year is captained by Mildred Ellor.

Many girls are on the gym teams. The girls' and boys' glee clubs, cheer leaders, orchestra, and band are also represented.

We take this time to thank Miss Terry for her help during the past half-year.

EVERYBODY that went to the boys' gym February 13 thinking to attend another ordinary class dance left with another opinion. We made more money than any other class. The Freshmen as well as the upper classmen had a good time. Even if it was Friday the thirteenth, there was no "jinx" on that dance. To a large degree the success of our class dance was due to Mr. Klein.

Our class boasts of a number of students on the honor roll but we regret to lose those who are graduating in three and one-half years.

THIS SOPHOMORE A CLASS is a very original one. For proof of this we point to our class banquet held in February, which was something new in Bloomfield High history. The banquet was a great success and was followed by dancing in the boys' gym.

We did not plan any other activities for this year, but are looking forward to our Prom, which we hope will be bigger and better than ever. Mr. Lawrence G. Mason is our adviser.

THE CLASS of February, 1934 has survived its freshman year and is well established in its sophomore as this book goes to press.

It has already distinguished itself in the programs presented at the parents' parties and in its first class dance which was held at Christmas. Our adviser is Miss Edith Albinson.

OUR CLASS has been in existence for a year now, in which it has accomplished much. Our class dance in November and our candy sale were both successful. Our Parents' Party had the largest attendance of any of these parties so far held, seventy-four parents being present. The class displayed a good deal of musical talent, instrumental and vocal solos being rendered by several members.

Mrs. Doyle, our adviser, has helped us to make these events so successful and we take this opportunity to thank her for her helpful interest.

WILLIAM ROCHE,

THE MOST IMPORTANT achievement of the Latin Club this year has been the creation of a museum containing models which show various phases of Roman life. This museum is an exhibition on the first floor of the High School building.

The annual banquet on March 18 was enlivened by the bright colors of the girls' stolas. The unique program included broadcasting by the boys, and telegrams from former members in college were a few features which contributed to the success of the evening.

The Latin Club is not only the oldest club in the school, but also one of the most active and hopes to continue its activities for many more years to come.

THE MAIN OBJECTIVE of the French Club is to promote an interest in the French language, the French people and their customs, and in things that are especially connected with France. It has succeeded in this during the past year through its regular monthly meetings in which French topics were discussed, French songs sung, and a good time was provided for all.

THE SPANISH CLUB has had a very active year, missing only one meeting on account of Washington's Birthday.

We lost our faculty adviser, Miss Safford, in the middle of the year but the work has gone on under the direction of Miss Martz, the new head of the Spanish department.

Miss Martz was hostess for the April meeting and entertained the club with an account of her recent trip around the world. Pictures and souvenirs helped to make this a very interesting meeting.

The club had its annual New York trip the first Saturday in June and a picnic closed the activities of the year.

RUTH SCHNEIDER,
Secretary

German Club

President IDABELLE MILLER
 Vice-President FRED BLACK
 Secretary and Treasurer GEORGE AMOS

THIS TERM the German Club has been the best in several years. In comparison with the size of the department the club has had a very good showing and is very progressive. Of the thirty-five members listed, as many as twenty-four have been present at one meeting.

Under the direction of Miss Zinn, our able adviser, the meetings of the club have aroused the interest of all those who have attended.

The club meets on the second Wednesday of every month. The programs presented have been widely varied but all have been connected in some way with German.

IF YOU ARE INTERESTED in mathematics or in solving problems with fallacies, join the Math Club. Anyone having two years of mathematics is eligible. This year there were twenty-five members.

Besides the regular monthly meetings, the Math Club members visited Columbia, Rutgers, and N. Y. U.

During the year the following members have given reports at meetings: Isabelle Birnie, Elizabeth Hultberg, and Alexander Randunis.

On March 23, the Math Club conducted the assembly program. Mr. Bowles, of Columbia, explained the different types of bridges and illustrated his lecture with models made of wood.

The Math Club went on their annual outing to Mr. Haupin's country home on June 25, with all the customary good fun.

Secretary

Chemistry Club

Honorary President	OTTO J. WALRATH
President	ARMER ARMSTRONG
Vice-President	LILLIAN ERDMAN
Secretary-Treasurer	ARTHUR BRINDLEY

THE CHEMISTRY CLUB has continued to be one of the largest clubs in B. H. S., with almost a hundred members.

In February the members saw motion pictures of Death Valley with views of the volcano and molten lava, and appropriate explanations furnished by Mr. Walrath. In March Mr. Scott-Lamb, of Kopper's Coke Company explained, with motion pictures, his company's process of by-product coke manufacture. The April meeting was held at Lehn, Fink & Company.

This year a nitric acid plant and a sulphuric acid plant have been completed and an ultra-violet ray projector has been brought near completion.

A motion picture machine of the 16 mm. variety was purchased with several reels of film on iron and sulphur.

The club furnishes money for two prizes given in B. H. S.

THE PURPOSE of this society is to bring to B. H. S. historic materials and information of value, and to promote interest and scholarship in history. Each semester a medal is given for the best research essay of historical interest.

Our club has been very successful financially and socially. Our April meeting was held in the High School cafeteria for the purpose of initiating the new members. In May the club had a trip to West Point.

THE GIRLS' GLEE CLUB increased both in number and enthusiasm over the clubs of previous years under the splendid direction of Miss Edith Albinson.

Almost the entire term was devoted to preparations for the concert which was given during music week May 7, at the high school. At this concert the Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs combined in a musical number for the first time.

A plan was agreed upon to give a guard for the Glee Club pins to the students who attended all the meetings last year. The pins will have the numerals on them.

On May 11 the club participated in a musical program presented in assembly.

The rest of the term was devoted to plans for the Graduation Exercises.

THIS YEAR the glee club has been very successful. Two new songs "Old Man Noah" and "The Road to Mandalay" were successfully rendered.

The joint concert with the Girls' Glee Club singing "Karmina" was highly regarded by the audience.

Sometime in the near future Mr. Crosby and Miss Albinson are going to put on an operetta, using the two clubs.

The purpose of the club is to foster a spirit of interest among the Commercial students, and to bring before them the many activities pertaining to a business career.

The Student Prints

THE STUDENT PRINTS, weekly scholastic publication of B. H. S., received third place in Class B at the Columbia Scholastic Press Association Convention this year.

The weekly edition of this paper affords the students the opportunity of knowing the facts about the school news and activities. It also provides a means for the student voice.

The staff of The Student Prints receives excellent training and valuable experience in journalism.

Louise Hazard has been the efficient and popular editor-in-chief for the last term.

There are eleven members in the graduating class among whom is Gertrude B. Carr, a most capable former editor-in-chief of The Student Prints, and now the editor-in-chief of the annual.

The loss of Andy Tymon, the art editor and cartoonist will also be felt very much. The other graduates are John Wollak, sports editor; Isabelle Birnie, managing editor and treasurer; Ada Daniel, news reporter and typist; Josephine Galati, feature editor; Sylvia Fried, assistant; Dorothy Taylor and Marguerite Callahan, typists; Laura Edwards, exchange editor; Anna Rareshide, assistant exchange editor, and Louise McGill, secretary.

THE ORCHESTRA has had a very active year. Besides playing in assembly every other week, it played at two Girl Scout rallies, a performance of the Methodist Church Dramatic Club of Watsessing, Berkeley School, and Carteret School. It represented the musical organizations of B. H. S. at the Woman's Club concert last term. The orchestra went over big at the annual spring concert.

Several representatives from B. H. S. have been elected to the All-State Orchestra since Miss Albinson has been conductor.

SPORTS

Football

THE FIRST GAME on the Bloomfield schedule was Textile High, N. Y. C. champs of the year before. They brought a powerful team with them but B. H. S. easily downed them 19—0.

Belleville was the next victim the following Saturday. They withstood the heavy pounding for two periods but finally weakened in the fourth quarter and Bloomfield made two touchdowns. At the finish the score stood 14—0.

The tragedy happened a week later when a strong South Side team handed a hard fought defeat to the Varsity. Both teams went on the field determined to win, but South Side had the slight advantage and they ended victorious 19—7.

Another scarring defeat was suffered when Paterson Central just managed to win by virtue of an extra point. The Bloomfield line was sluggish as the day was warm and neither team really got started. In the final period Bloomfield started clicking and a seventy-yard march ended in a touchdown. The extra point attempted failed, and the game ended 7—6, although B. H. S. was on its way to another touchdown when the whistle blew.

Dickinson, on the road to a state championship, was decisively beaten by the determined Red and Grays to the tune of 13—6. The varsity played fine football and won easily.

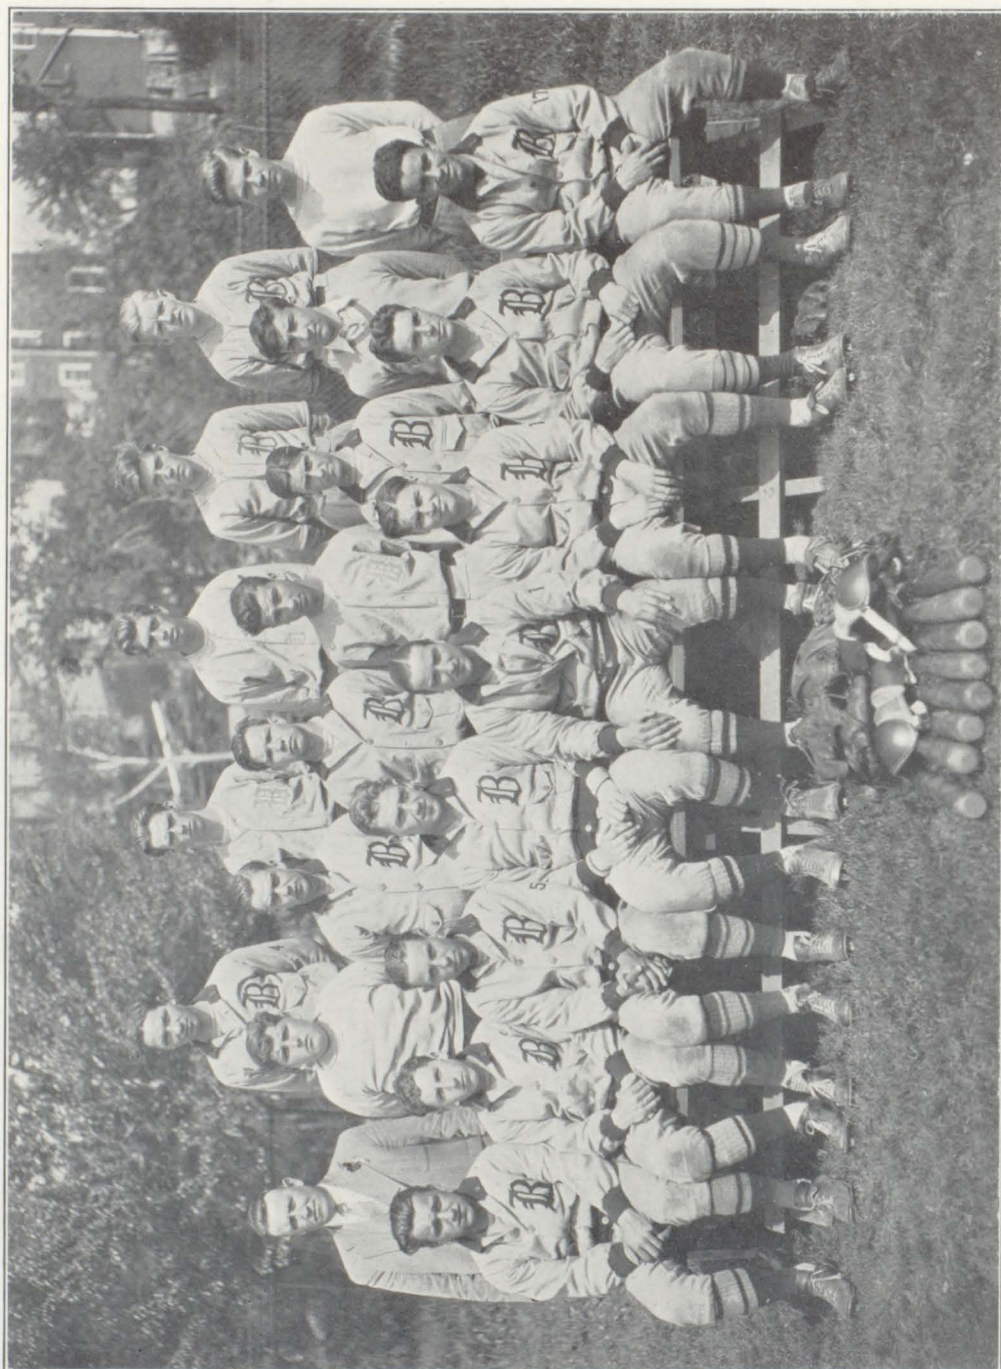

Next, East Side of Newark came under the spell of B. H. S. and they went home lamenting a 35—6 trouncing which came upon them like an inevitable fate.

The following Friday, Irvington, who had a week or so before spoiled Asbury Park's chances, was swamped at the Athletic Field 40—0. Irvington soon found out that Bloomfield was not Asbury, as Captain Frank Schumell ran wild for four periods.

The field was a sea of oozy mud at the Nutley fracas the next Saturday and loose-footing and fumbles marked the game from start to finish. However, mud didn't hamper the "Bulldogs" as they trampled Nutley 19—0.

As was expected, on Thanksgiving, Montclair was humiliated by a score of 25—0. Bloomfield literally ground the Montclair gridders in the dirt, although the latter made all kinds of efforts to score.

Rutherford offered to play B. H. S. a post season game for charity, and Coach Foley accepted. A few days before the game, Rutherford had been placed above Bloomfield in the state rating by N. J. S. A. I. A., but they were out-played and beaten 13—0. The varsity played like a machine; perfect timing, teamwork, spirit, and plenty of fight marking the playing. Captain Schumell and Sitarsky fought out a personal battle. Among those playing their last game for Bloomfield were: Frank Schumell, Jack Davis, Bob White, Ernie Davidson, Dick Fornoff and Jerry Clericuzio.

Baseball

THE BLOOMFIELD HIGH baseball representatives had a rather poor season. Coach Foley found himself with but three regulars back and had to build up a new team around them.

Miano, Horton and Adams formed the nucleus of the infield, playing third, short and second, respectively. Andy Harrison, last year's sub fielder, soon became the chief pin of the outfield.

At the beginning of the season the team did not seem to start clicking since one-third of the aggregation was composed of rookies but toward the end they were playing a better brand of ball.

In every contest but the Dickinson and Morristown melees the opposing teams had to fight long and hard for the victory. The final margin was generally one or two runs on the average.

The deciding scores in the Irvington and Nutley games were by one run made by desperate rallies in the eleventh hour.

Perhaps the hardest fought game was the Columbia tilt, won by the Red and Grays in the tenth inning 2—1. With Columbia ahead 1—0, the locals came from behind to tie the score on two successive doubles by Delezenski and Harrison and finally to win through a homer over the left field fence by Reid for the deciding run.

Johnny Reid reached the peak in his first year as regular on the baseball team during the Columbia game. He struck out thirteen batters, allowing but five scattered hits, walked two and accounted for the homer that won the game. To Reidy should go much of the credit for B. H. S's. showing although the season wasn't as of average. After the first two games the team found it had but one capable pitcher in Reid, since Eddie Lynch was unable to play and to Johnny fell the twirling job. He managed the responsibility well enough and pitched approximately two games a week for almost two months.

Eddie Lynch should also be mentioned since, after having to leave the squad for physical reasons he donned a uniform and went in to relieve Reid in the Glen Ridge game when Reidy injured his arm in a spill on the baselines.

Track

THE B. H. S. TRACK TEAM enjoyed a very successful season, placing ahead of the field in six out of ten meets, second in one and losing but three to the strongest teams in the state.

The relay team finished second in the Penn Relays over last year's third and covered themselves with glory.

Ernie Davidson has been the mainstay of the track squad all season, accounting for points in both track and field events in every meet. At the end of the schedule Ernie had a total of almost 150 points to his credit.

To go down the line B. H. S. left South Side in the dust easily and trampled over East Orange and Paterson Central. In the triangular Plainfield and Columbia set-to, the locals placed second just behind Columbia.

Barringer, Asbury Park, and Montclair defeated the Bloomfield tracksters in hotly contested meets but B. H. S. broke the tape ahead of East Side and Irvington by decisive scores.

In a quadrangular get-together with Glen Ridge, East Orange, and Montclair Academy, the Bloomfielders succeeded in coming through with a victory by a margin of four and one-half points.

Davidson—hurdles, javelin, pole vault, discus, broad jump and relay team.

Eriksen—mile, half-mile, relay team.

Garriga—mile, half-mile.

Jones—sprints, quarter, relay team.

Vassor—sprints, quarter, relay team.

Fischer—sprints, high jump, quarter-mile, relay team.

J. Wheelan—high jump, broad jump, weight.

Cleary—pole vault, hurdles.

Basketball

THE BLOOMFIELD HIGH court representatives for '30-'31 had a slightly below average schedule. Coach Foley found himself with but one veteran in Frank Schumell and had to develop a new team.

The first two games with Central Paterson and Montclair were lost by close scores. The Red and Gray came through to beat Morristown, Bloomfield Seminary, and Irvington by decisive scores.

Both Central Paterson and Morristown won their return games which the Red and Grays tended them.

Belleville, Glen Ridge, and Central Newark, the latter two away, beat the B. H. S. basketballers by comfortable scores, and Bloomfield High broke a losing streak by beating the Alumni by a 16-point margin.

In the second Montclair game, the Montclairites just squeezed through with a very close victory. Nutley and West Orange succumbed to a determined B. H. S. attack and Glen Ridge found it impossible to win the second game. In the last game Passaic visited Bloomfield's court and won after trailing at the half.

The Red and Grays couldn't get started in the beginning of the season because of lack of practice. Toward the end, however, they were coasting along fine.
